

TWO ARTISTS, ONE JOURNEY

2 exciting Art Month Workshops/ Saturday 10 March 2018
at ME artspace 25 Atchison Street, St Leonards NSW 2065

Drawing into the Landscape

by Mike Staniford 9.30am - 12.30 pm

An intuitive exploration of mark making, to look more closely and establish a narrative within the landscape. Mike will show examples of his own work and demonstrate speedy drawing techniques to sharpen your observations. Participants will then create their own unique landscapes, seeing the importance and value of the single mark.

© Mike Staniford/Drawing into the Landscape

© Debbie Mackinnon/Textures in the Landscape

Textures in the Landscape

By Debbie Mackinnon 1.30-4.30 pm

A landscape is made up of a multitude of surfaces. Debbie will demonstrate mixed media techniques to create amazing textures, with reference to her own sketchbooks.

Participants will experiment with ink, charcoal, gouache, acrylics, collage and pencil to create richly textured mixed media works, exploring diversity in mark making and expression in your own work.

Both workshops suitable for artists with a keen interest in both drawing and landscape.

Some experience helpful/preferred. Book early, 8 participants max each workshop

Book Drawing into the Landscape mikestaniford@icloud.com

Book Textures in the Landscape debbie@debbiemackinnon.com

Cost: $60 for each session. Morning or afternoon tea included

Materials list available on booking.

any further queries call 0419295271